Qualification Overview

The Ascentis Entry 3 Award in Introduction to an Inclusive Environment is designed to give learners an introduction to understanding the challenges to developing an inclusive environment, including how people feel marginalised when they are bullied or abused, how abuse takes lots of different forms and has negative impacts for the victim and the abuser, how they can make and keep healthy friendships and also how to recognise unhealthy friendships and know the action to take if they suspect someone in their own community is being abused.

There are several features of this qualification that make it very appropriate for its target learners:

- Assessment and certification can be offered throughout the year, allowing maximum flexibility for centres
- It can be delivered either as a classroom-based course or as a blended learning programme
- Assessments are offered through an online multiple-choice test that is designed to be taken at the end of the course. Assessments can only be requested as a paper-based assessment where required as a reasonable adjustment
- There are online resources that can be used alongside the teaching

Aims

The aims of the qualification are to enable learners to:

- Understand the basic concept and benefits of an inclusive environment
- Know the challenges in developing an inclusive environment and the legal protection in place
- Know correct behaviours to promote an inclusive society

Target Group

The qualification is aimed at a range of learners, including:

- Young people wishing to pick up an Award as part of another learning programme
- Young people aged 14–19 who are in various learning environments
