Qualification Overview

The Ascentis Level 1 Award in Managing Uncertainty and Self-Resilience for Employability qualification is designed to give learners the knowledge and understanding of the effects of uncertainty and change on personal stress; raise awareness of mindfulness and stress management techniques to manage self during these times; and raise awareness of transferable skills to build confidence and support employability.

There are several features of this qualification that make it very appropriate for its target learners:

- Assessment and certification can be offered throughout the year, allowing maximum flexibility for centres
- Qualification is offered as a single unit of 24 guided learning hours
- It can be delivered either as a classroom-based course or as a blended learning programme
- There is a learner workbook and glossary to support learners with this qualification

Aims

The aims of the qualification are to enable learners to:

- Know the effects of change, uncertainty and stress on self and others
- Know how to manage self during times of uncertainty and change
- Understand transferable skills and employability
- Understand how mindfulness and other techniques can be used to create calm and resilience to lessen stress and anxiety in work and life

Target Group

The qualification is aimed at a range of learners, including:

- Young people wishing to pick up an Award as part of another learning programme
- Young people aged 16–19 who are in various learning environments
- Adult learners
