Qualification Overview

The Ascentis Level 3 Award in Supporting Children and Young People's Speech, Language and Communication is designed for learners who are working in a wide range of early years settings, including teaching assistants and support staff. It is also relevant to those who are involved in working in roles that come into contact with children and young people on a regular basis, for example in play work, youth justice and youth work in the private, voluntary and public sectors.

Aims

This qualification aims to develop the appropriate knowledge and skills to enable learners to:

- Understand the importance of speech, language and communication (SLCN) skills for children and young people
- Understand what constitutes typical speech and language development in children and young people
- Know how to recognise the signs that a child is experiencing difficulties
- Promote speech, language and communication development with all age groups
- Understand and explore a range of ways that children and young people who have speech, language and communication needs (SLCN) can be supported

Target Group

This qualification is aimed at individuals aged 16–18 and 19+ working in educational settings.

Regulation Codes

Ofqual Regulation Number: 600/8251/3

Assessment Method

All units are internally assessed through the learner building up a portfolio of evidence that covers the relevant assessment criteria. They are internally assessed and verified by the centre and then externally verified by Ascentis.
