14th Apr 2021, 4:15pm	ESOL Skills for Life: Alternative Arrangements under the Vocational Contingency Regulatory Framework (VCRF) What will the Webinar cover? The webinar is free to join and will provide guidance to Centres regarding the application of alternative arrangements within the Vocational Contingency Regulatory Framework (VCRF) to ESOL Skills for Life qualifications. The VCRF will permit Awarding Organisations to issue results this year on the basis of teachers' judgements of learners' performance (to be referred to as Teacher Assessed Grades) in certain circumstances. The webinar will guide centres through determining eligibility and the process of claiming TAGs for any eligible ESOL learners. Who can join the Webinar? All approved centres delivering Ascentis ESOL Skills for Life qualifications – centre co-ordinators, tutor/assessors, exams officers and those involved in the delivery of qualifications – are invited to join this webinar. Who delivers the Webinar? The webinar is delivered by our Lead EQA for ESOL, Ruth Simons, and Ascentis Quality Assurance staff. Why join the Webinar? The webinar provides essential information for Centres who may need to claim for their ESOL learners under the Vocational Contingency Regulatory Framework (VCRF). Read More &gt;

ESOL Writing Webinar

Ascentis ESOL Quality Assurance Webinar Webinar Theme Writing Assessments – Positive Marking and Learner Feedback. What will the Webinar cover? The webinar is free to join and will include standardisation activities as well as the opportunity to share best practice with other practitioners. Who can join the Webinar? All approved centres delivering Ascentis ESOL qualifications – centre co-ordinators, tutor/assessors and those involved in the Internal Quality Assurance of these qualifications – are invited to join this webinar. Please note this is a repeat of the webinar offered last year so if you attended previously you do not need to attend again. Who delivers the Webinar? The webinar is delivered by the Lead ESOL External Quality Assurer Ruth Simons. The Lead EQA is a subject expert in the field of ESOL and also works in centres as an EQA and so has a vast knowledge of Ascentis expectations and processes. A Quality Assurance Manager will also join the webinar to answer any QA specific questions. Why join the Webinar? Each attendee that participates in the webinar will receive a certificate of attendance which counts towards Continuing Professional Development. You will take part in valuable standardisation activities and receive useful information that will help with the standardisation, delivery and assessment of the qualifications. We very much hope you will take up this opportunity to join with our centres to participate in important quality assurance activities. *Please note that the standardisation materials will be the same as those used in last year's Webinar. If you attended this webinar in 2019-20 you may prefer not to attend again. Please note that this is a ticketed event for Ascentis centres only (with approval to deliver ESOL) and places are limited. Please book your place using your centre email address to avoid disappointment.
